

Tunnel

Verse 1

You are walking alone in a tunnel, it's dark, hot, and cold
You don't even know how to feel no more
You are walking alone in this tunnel you've been there for years now
Only you can't see there is bright light outside

Verse 2

You are walking alone in a tunnel,
You think you are strong and smart
Only you can't see how weak you are in fact
You are walking alone in this tunnel relying on your own sight
But you fail to see how lost you are on this ride

Chorus

Give me good ears to hear your voice, divine lord
Give me a heart to feel your touch
And the sight to see thy spirit; divine love
And the will to walk in your ways
Cause I don't want to go astray
Cause these lies of men/mine, I really want to trade

Verse 3

You are walking alone in this tunnel, calling yourself spiritual
Only you can't see how wavering you are
You are walking alone in this tunnel trying out vain rituals
Only you can't see how pointless they all are

Pre-Chorus

And it seems, you've been there for so long
Yes indeed, you've been there for too long

Verse 4

You are walking alone in this tunnel, ambitious and rebellious
Only you can't see how heartless and ruthless you are
You are walking alone in this tunnel, proud to be intellectual
But you fail to see how one-dimensional you are
You are walking alone in this tunnel, blinded by your own pride
But you fail to see how free you'd be outside

Outro

Get out! Get out! Get out! Would you get out?
